

INN^{OR}OUT

A royal residence for over three hundred years, the palace is available for corporate, charity and private events including wedding receptions

Kensington Palace—W8

King's Gallery

King's Gallery is hung with masterpieces, including works by Bassano, and the famous wind dial. A perfect space for receptions and sit down dinners.

Queen's Gallery

The Queen's Gallery begins the chronological starting point to the history of the palace. The space has good circulation for larger numbers of people and is perfect for pre-dinner receptions.

The Orangery

Situated within its own private grounds in the heart of Kensington Palace, the Orangery combines the privilege of access to a royal palace with a serene rural ambience in the centre of the capital. The graceful interior of the building with its imposing yet elegant architecture lends itself to formal dinners.
