With flexible and stylish gallery space, the Museum of London provides a historic backdrop to 21st century entertaining

Museum of London—EC2

Our distinctive galleries offer a stylish setting for receptions of 40 to 1,000, or dinners for up to 350. The Museum of London offers both banqueting facilities and conference facilities.

Sackler Hall

Sackler Hall is defined by London's only fully commissionable digital ellipse. At 48 linear metres and with integrated plasma screens your event can be enhanced by anything from its most simple show state as a twinkling chandelier to a bespoke commission with dynamic film integration or interactive social media features.

Entrance Hall

The Entrance Hall is a striking space to hold or start you event. With a contemporary style, this space is 409 square metres of open space with a programmable lighting system and projector to enhance any event. The futuristic front desk coverts readily into a bar, creating a strong central feature.
