

INN<sup>OR</sup>OUT

The Museum of the Order of St John is a hidden jewel in the City of London, where evocative buildings dating from the twelfth and sixteenth centuries are combined with up to the minute technology to produce an extraordinarily special venue

Museum of the Order of St. John—EC1M

Museum Galleries

The galleries provide atmospheric lighting, subtle sound and fascinating displays, they provide a sophisticated setting.

Chapter Hall

The space has an impressive collection of 16th to 20th century painting, providing an incomparably atmospheric setting for exclusive entertaining.

The Council Chamber

This space combines history, grandeur and intimacy in an ideal venue for select receptions, lunches or dinners, or for smaller meetings and workshops.

Garden

The elegant garden of St John, featuring fragrant and healing plants and a central fountain, stands next to the Grand Priory Church. It may be used with or without a marquee for receptions, lunches, dinners and corporate events.

Capacities

Chapter Hall

Reception	150
Dinner	80

The Council Chamber

Reception	50
Dinner	20

Garden

Reception	150
Dinner	80