

INN<sub>OR</sub>OUT

The gleaming white gothic castle of Strawberry Hill provides a unique setting for entertaining, a stone's throw from London. Whether you are looking for a venue for corporate entertaining, a private party or conference, Strawberry Hill can offer rooms for almost any occasion

Strawberry Hill House—Surrey TW1

Created in the 18th century by Horace Walpole, son of Britain's first Prime Minister, Strawberry Hill's theatrical interiors are quirky and eccentric. Entering a grey castle like Hall, lit by a single lamp, you progress up an elegant staircase towards the gold and crimson splendour of the Gallery and rooms of the state apartment. The windows glow with a unique collection of renaissance painted glass. Smaller rooms are available as break out spaces for conferences and expert guides are available for parties wishing to have a tour of the house as part of their event.
