

ARMOURERS HALL

The wonderful Armourers' Hall is a stunning blend of 16th and 17th century armour and paintings. The Company hires out the various rooms in this beautiful Hall, which would make a superb and unique location for any function.

The Armourers' Company was founded in 1322 and has occupied the same site in the City of London since 1346. Joining with the Brasiers (workers in copper and brass) in 1708, the Company is now one of the leading charities in the UK supporting metallurgy and materials science education from primary school to postgraduate levels.

Armourers' Hall is a unique and ideal setting for all types of functions such as stunning banquets, loan signings, financial presentations, receptions, wine tastings, formal and informal luncheons etc. The smaller rooms can be used as break out rooms for conferences, intimate luncheons or dinners and a special setting for meetings with that very important client.
