

FORBES HOUSE

Forbes House, a hidden secret in the heart of Belgravia, set well back from the street in its own spacious grounds. The house is 200 years old and retains many of its original features, including a majestic entrance and imposing staircase.

With six different rooms to hire, the house is a suitable venue for all types of events – from small boardroom meetings & private dinners, to receptions for up to 200 – while a marquee can be erected in the garden to create extra space. The signature room is the Council Room, which has a fantastic view of the garden. Located near Hyde Park Corner, the venue is licensed for civil marriages & civil partnerships & benefits from approximately 30 parking spaces.

The oak panelled library can provide a discreet setting for dinner parties for up to 15 guests. The air conditioned Council Room is the perfect location for a lavish wedding reception, celebration of your civil partnership or drinks party. A marquee can also be erected on the south facing front lawn.

The House was built nearly 200 years ago and still radiates the elegance of its era. It retains many of its original features, including the majestic entrance and imposing staircase, this being the main focus leading to our grand reception rooms.
