

GOLDEN SALAMANDER

The Golden Salamander is the smartest and most versatile of the Thames boats of her class and size, able to operate from any Thames Pier from Putney to the Thames Barrier. The Salamander provide the perfect unique venue whatever the occasion.

The Golden Salamander can fairly lay claim to being the finest and most stylish cruising riverboat of her capacity on the Thames. This Magnificent vessel has a unique 3-deck design which is great for viewing the views of the Thames, whilst having dinner served in the decks below. She offers light and airy accommodation, coupled with the slim lines of a stylish motor yacht. Although licensed for up to 150, parties of 20 upwards will feel really comfortable. The lower dining saloon seats up to 70 for silver service meals, freshly prepared in the galley and 50 for a seated buffet. Barbeques and finger buffets are possible for up to 120-150 guests.

On the top deck, a spacious covered upper area for drinks or dancing and a large outside observation deck that can take up to 50 guests enjoying fine views of the Thames sights. The large glass windows on all levels provide guests with a clear picture of the ever changing Thames panorama – dramatic floodlit scenes at night, picturesque and historic places of interest during the day.
