

MARBLE HILL HOUSE

With its idyllic view of the River Thames and exquisite décor, Marble Hill House is an exceptional choice for special events.

The House was built in the 1720's for Henrietta Howard, Countess of Suffolk and mistress of George II. It became one of the most fashionable residences of the period where the creative minds of artists, authors, poets and politicians frequently met.

Today, Marble Hill House is available for civil wedding ceremonies and drinks receptions. The House displays a superb collection of paintings and puts its guests at ease with its serene setting and tasteful interiors.
