

ONE MARYLEBONE ROAD

One Marylebone Road provides a glamorous and unique central London venue for the most exclusive private and corporate events in a number of stunning spaces

Formerly Holy Trinity Church, One Marylebone Road was designed by Sir John Soane, the building was deconsecrated 50 years ago and returned to its former glory in 2007 opening its doors as London's most exciting new events venue.

The Soane Hall is an elegant room that seats up to 200 for a dinner or reception and is ideal for concerts, parties, conferences and exhibitions. The Baccarat Room on the first floor is flooded with natural daylight from its stunning floor to ceiling windows complimented by hand carved crystal Baccarat chandeliers ensuring elegance at every event. The Garden runs alongside the church hidden away behind holly bushes to provide privacy; it is the perfect place for a summer party or addition space to an event happening within the building.
