

TEMPLE BAR

Temple Bar is a unique structure that marked the gateway to the City of London for 200 years, and has graced many locations throughout its lifetime.

Recently Temple Bar was moved to its present location at Paternoster Square after making history at its unveiling, the Temple Bar was gladly welcomed by the city it represents. Each of its two thousand six hundred and fifty stones were cleaned, taken down and reassembled in the process.

Situated opposite St Paul's Cathedral and which makes a wonderful setting for both daytime and evening functions, set above the archway lies this sumptuous room.
