

THE VIOLIN FACTORY

The Violin Factory Venue is by far the most sophisticated and unique contemporary space in central London and only a few strides away from Waterloo Station.

Located on a beautiful, cobbled street The Violin Factory Venue greets you with stunning, traditional wooden gates which lead into an elegant indoor garden home to a great array of exotic orchids and cacti.

The ground floor is ideal for corporate or private dining with an open plan kitchen where guests can take delight in watching the chefs create their masterpiece!

Guests can also regard the cocktail reception in full flow from the 20 foot glass balcony overlooking the dining room.

A true hidden gem of a house which has recently been featured on Channel Four's Grand Designs and brought on the market by Pink Panther Events.
