

WATERMEN'S HALL

The Company of Watermen was established by Act of Parliament in 1555 to regulate watermen and wherrymen carrying passengers by boat under oars on the River Thames. It remains the only ancient City Guild to be formed and controlled by Parliament.

Located on St-Mary-at-Hill, near the Monument, Pudding Lane and within the City of London, Watermen's Hall offers elegance, style and heritage combined with a unique, modern approach to customer service.

Whether for corporate events, press launches, road shows, wedding receptions, wine tasting or other private functions, our room hire & catering arrangements could precisely fit your requirements.

The present Hall dates back to 1780 and was extended in 1983 to provide a suite of rooms that are both elegant and adapted to modern day conference and banqueting requirements.
